PORTRAIT QUILTS

NOVEMBER PROGRAM

Judy Lilly has been a NQA Certified quilting instructor since 1995 and has taught hundreds of students. We are so fortunate to have her in our Guild. She is known for her landscape quilts but recently has begun making Portrait Quilts.

For the program Judy will share her Portrait Quilts and, in the afternoon, she will teach a 1 1/2 day class where participants will learn the technique so they can make a quilt based on their own photos.

There are one or two openings left in the class if you've been debating signing up. Contact Jerre Reese if interested.

President's Message

Fall has finally come to Myrtle Beach. It's nice to spend time outside in the cooler weather but as the weather changes we return to our house and our wonderful sewing rooms. I'm so excited to see what this group makes and our snowbirds bring to show at the meetings this coming year.

This month's meeting should be inspirational with our own Judy Lilly doing a trunk show. I'm sure wonderful things will come out of her class after the meeting and the next day. We will be making an announcement about our December meeting.

Don't forget your show and tell as we all look forward to seeing everybody's beautiful work. See you on Monday.

Joanne Shropshire

Coming Attractions

December

Food, fun and games! We will play L-R-C Three (3) fat quarters are needed for this game.

Changing things up a bit we will play Quilto (with prizes) instead of the usual gift exchange. Details to follow on the other aspects of the Christmas Party.

February

We will have Linda Hahn as our first guest speaker of the year. She will offer a class based on the paper-pieced New York Beauty Block. She does it differently and I know you will enjoy her method, her class, and her sense of humor.
