October Flea Market

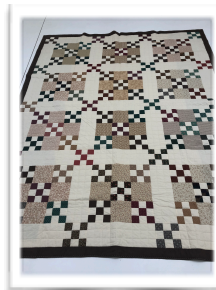

Come one..come all!!

Whether you're a buyer or seller, get ready to have some fun at the flea market. Bring cash or checks..no credit cards please! And, BYOB. NO, not what you're thinkin'!! It means..bring your own bags! No doubt there will be lots of good deals and items you won't be able to pass up.

CCQ has it's own table as well. We have 10 antique quilts and quilt tops for sale. Thanks to Brenda Grampsas, a new member and quilt appraiser, we have priced these items to sell! You don't want to miss this opportunity! The monies collected will benefit our educational fund.

Doors open to sellers at 8:30. Buyers arrive no earlier than 9:30.

These are 3 of the antique quilts that will be available for purchase.

President's Message

October is our garage sale so get your wallet ready for some nice bargains. Our doors will open early for anyone selling to set up. Please, if you aren't a seller, don't come any earlier than 9:30. Give them some time to set up.

If a table has a name on it please do not sit there as it is assigned for that person to set up her stuff and she may be running late.

We will have chairs to sit on for show and tell.

Last month was an interesting display of Molasses. I can't wait to see everyone finished projects.

I am still looking for 2 people to serve on the nomination committee. We really need to get this done as we vote in December and that is just 2 meetings away.

See you on the 18th. Don't forget to bring money. You don't want to miss out on a good buy.

Note: There will be a short board meeting after the meeting. We need to keep it short because there is also a class that afternoon.

Program Notes from Jerre

Remember:

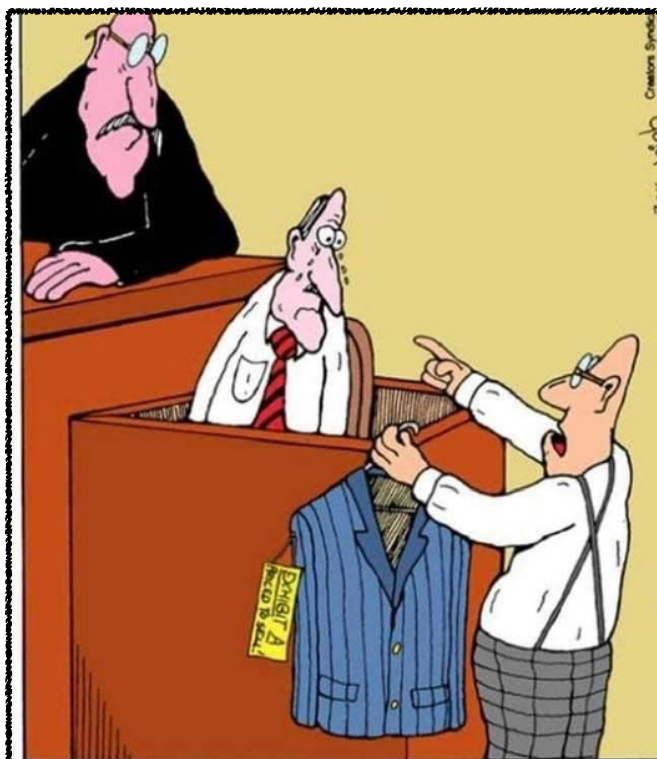

- * Wear your name tag
- * Get your parking pass - you will need $1.00 along with your driver's license and your vehicle registration.
- * Bring Show and Tell

Coming Attractions

October — Bring your mad money and enjoy our Quilters Flea Market! There will be all kinds of goodies for you to choose from.

November — Judy Lilly will be presenting a program based on her wonderful portrait quilts. After our regular October meeting, she will begin day one of her day-and-a-half class. There are still a few openings for the class. There was a flyer with September's newsletter, plus one went out recently. This is a class worth taking. You will learn so much and then you will have the skills to choose any picture and reproduce it in fabric.

When pressed, the tailor, a material witness in the suit, came apart at the seams. His altered testimony completely unraveled. The tale he had woven had been a complete fabrication.

Or sew it seams.

FALL CRAFT FESTIVAL

Several members have asked Anna Henry about the Festival taking place at her church, Surfside United Methodist.

The church is located at 800 13th Ave. North, Surfside Beach.

The event is scheduled for Friday, October 22 from 9am to 5pm and Saturday, October 23 from 9am to 4pm. and there will be over 120 crafters.

LET'S ADMIT IT:
WE PUT "MADE WITH LOVE" ON OUR CREATIONS BECAUSE
"MADE WITH CURSING, 2 TRIPS
TO THE CRAFT SHOP, AND LOTS OF WINE" JUST WONT FIT ON A CUTE LITTLE LABEL...

As you grow older you will discover that you have two hands, one for helping yourself and the other for helping others.

Sankofa: The 14th Annual African American Fiber Art Exhibition

Our very own Carolyn Brackat is one of the featured fiber artists at Brookgreen Gardens. Be sure to check out this wonderful exhibition.

WHEN:

Saturday, July 3, 2021 to Thursday, November 25, 2021

WHERE:

Lowcountry Center Auditorium

Curated by Torreah “Cookie” Washington, this unique opportunity offers African American fiber artists a showcase to exhibit their original and innovative designs around a changing theme each year.

This annual juried exhibit showcases works in fiber created by African American artists from throughout the US. The 14th installment of this traveling exhibition features fiber art pieces from 23 artists who were challenged to create a pictorial fiber artwork interpreting the Adinkra symbol of Sankofa, and its associated proverb to “reach back and get it.” The Sankofa images are a reminder to use the wisdom of the past to aid one in the present moment. Sankofa symbols have a fascinating origin from the Akan tribe of Ghana and are usually depicted as a bird turning its head to place an egg on its back, or as an ornate heart-shape design. The artists were asked to include one Sankofa in each artwork.
